

The Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study(YES) Program is a program funded by the United States Government to promote respect for cultural diversity, friendship between the United States of America and your country and Opportunities for personal development through international host family living.

The program is implemented in Sierra Leone by private not-for-profit making Organization "International Education and Resource Network" (iEARN).

It provides the opportunity to attend an American school, share in U.S. Family life, learn about the United States, increase the participants' sensitivity of cultural differences and similarities and develop a deepened awareness of shared human values and interest.

The Program, as implemented by YES Program Organizations, consistent with it's commitment to international understanding does not discriminate on the bases of race, colour, national origin, religion or sex in employment or in making selections and placements for students.
